Rehabilitation of disabled Kargil soldiers

2720. SHRI DAWA LAMA: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

- (a) whether Government propose to consider rehabilitation of ex-soldiers who have been declared permanently disable in Kargil war; and
- (b) if so, the details of the proposals and time frame?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Those, fit for civil jobs in Central Government Departments, are eligible on priority-I for employment against Groups 'C and *D' posts, for which, recruitment is made through the Directorate General of Employment and Training. Soldiers, boarded out of service, are given pensionary and other monetary benefits, as per enclosed Statement.

Statement

Rehabilitation of Disabled Kargil Soldiers

The Armed Forces personnel, injured in the Kargil Operation and boarded out of service are granted War Injury Pension, which consists of service element and war injury element. The service element is equal to retiring/service pension, calculated on the basis of his pay on the date of invalidment and counting service up to the date, on which, he would have retired/discharged from service, in that rank in the normal course, including admissible weightage of service. The war injury element of pension is equal to reckonable emoluments, drawn at the time of invalidment for 100% disablement. For lower percentage of disablement war injury element is proportionately, reduced but it is not less than 50% of the reckonable emoluments, last drawn. Further, the aggregate of the service element and war injury element of pension, in such cases, is not to exceed the last pay drawn. In addition, they are paid gratuity, as admissible, under the rules.

These personnel, boarded out of service, have also been given following benefits from the National Defence Fund and the Army Central Welfare Fund:

1. Benefits from National Defence Fund
